GREEN SHADES FOR COMPETITION

An important conference organised by The MIA will focus on the "Green" topic in motor sport.

16 April will see a conference at the Long Beach Convention Center, California, discussing the reduction of emissions of carbon dioxide in motorsport.

Thanks to new and innovative solutions, it is now possible to increase the production of more sustainable and ecological energy and apply it not only in the automotive sector but also in the competition field and aeronautics.

This is a unique occasion and participants will include leading exponents of vehicle constructors and component manufacturers (Michelin, Mazda, Ford, Corsa Motorsports, Progressive Insurance Automotive X PRIZE,...).
